

Dear Rev. Barbara,

I think by the beaming smiles on our faces, and the constant flowing tears of happiness in our eyes (along with the tears of the bridal party and the audience), it was obvious what an exceptional ceremony you performed at our wedding. From the first day we met you, we knew you would be the perfect person to take our love and put it into words to share with our family and friends. You are such a caring and kindhearted person that when we left you on our meetings before the wedding, we didn't want to. We wanted to stay and just talk. That was another reason why we chose you, you are just someone who we would like to hang out with. You put the people around you at such ease, and that is very important on such a emotion-packed day.

For the grooms-to-be reading this, I recommend Rev. Barbara for the simple reason that I felt completely at ease during the ceremony. She walked me through every step of the way. This is very important when you are standing in front of everyone who ever meant anything to you and want to look your best. Also, when Heather came down that isle, I felt a combination of happiness, anticipation, excitement and contentment. When you deal with all of these things, you need have someone there to reassure you to keep standing, and Barbara does that.

For the brides-to-be reading this who have a lot to worry about with people showing up on time and calling to confirm when they are supposed to, Barbara was probably the only one who kept her word by showing up when she was supposed to, and calling back in a more than reasonable amount of time. Barbara also put Heather at ease more so than me, because Heather was on the spot that day more than I was, and she did a great job of it.

In closing, I just want to give you a "Top 5" list of the most said things about Rev. Barbara and the ceremony from our guests.

- 1) That was the most beautiful ceremony I have ever seen.
- 2) We are getting married soon, can we get her number.
- 3) We have never seen such an emotional/loving/humourous/comfortable ceremony given before.
- 4) It was great seeing a woman give the ceremony.

And my personal favorite:

- 5) That Rev. was really beautiful!!

Because of these reasons and so much more, we would both like to thank you Barbara, it couldn't have been as beautiful a ceremony if it wasn't for you giving it.

Thank you again,

Heather & Brian Cummings
