Rev. Barbara,

Hello! My apologies for taking so long to send this. February 21, 2003 seems like such a long time ago! I was waiting for the pictures to be done so I could send you some. I'm sure you know how that goes!!

I just wanted to thank you again for all that you did at our wedding. I knew you were the right person when I first talked to you (exactly a year ago this week!!!). When we first spoke on the phone and you mentioned unconditional love, I knew I didn't have to look any further. You were the first person I called!!!! To this day I still think of our wedding day and think how it was everything I thought it would be and more. I can't believe how much I giggled through out the entire ceremony but I was soooooo nervous!!! I kept your advice.....don't forget to breath and bend my knees!!! As nervous as I was, you brought such a calm to me it's hard to explain.

I had dreamt of that day since I was a little girl and it was honestly the best day of my life. It was everything I had ever dreamed about. We wanted it to be the most romantic night of not only our lives but everyone who was there. It couldn't have been more perfect! The weather had even worked out in our favor!! I am still hearing how perfect everyone thought you were. They loved you. A couple of our friends even told us that they renewed their vows that night. It was truly a magical evening. Your husband did such a wonderful job video taping the ceremony as well. I would recommend him highly!!!! I watch our video every month on our anniversary and cry every time! Thanks to him our relatives back east who couldn't make it get to see the best wedding ever! I think of your words often and try my best to follow your advice. Every time I look at my wedding band I think of that day and what it meant and I hear you in the back of my head and I know I am truly one of the luckiest girls in the world.

It's been almost six months since our wedding and it definitely has been a learning and growing experience. Every day gets better knowing that I have married my perfect partner and together we'll journey through all that life has to offer and we will make the best of every day! We will definitely keep you posted on how things are going and when the Santosuosso family will be getting a little bigger!!! Hopefully soon!!!!

I also wanted to add one little thing.....you are lucky you left when you did; all of my friends wanted the jacket you wore, including myself!!!!!!

Again, my deepest and sincerest thanks to you and your husband. You were truly the icing on our cake.

Truly yours,

Lee Santosuosso (and Rob!!!)
